

Kara's Cupcakes

donation request form 2011

We appreciate your interest in requesting our artisan product for your upcoming event. Donating and giving back to the community are core values of Kara's Cupcakes. While we carefully consider all donation requests, it is not possible for us to commit to all requests we receive.

In order to make the greatest positive impact on our community, we have developed objective criteria for donation requests. To us, the most important causes enable our product to directly feed hungry people in the Bay Area. With that goal in mind, nearly ninety percent of the over 250,000 cupcakes we donated in 2010 were to charities that attempt to eliminate hunger right here in San Francisco.

Kara's Cupcakes tends to book up six or more months out for charitable events. If your event is an annual concern, we would be more likely to consider it for 2012, as we are fully committed for 2011 for all but the most compelling causes.
